
Colorado Oil & Gas Volatility Agenda

Date: Friday, January 18

Location: Colorado School of Mines, Student Center, Ballroom C

Format: Panel Series | Chatham House Rules

Attendees: 30-50 | Invitation-only

COFFEE AND PASTRIES

9:30 - 10:00am

WELCOME/OPENING REMARKS

10:00 - 10:10am

PANEL 1: Public Sector Response to Oil and Gas Volatility

10:10 - 11:30am

How has the public sector responded to challenges resulting from volatile oil prices and production?

Moderator: Daniel Raimi, Resources For the Future

Participants:

Roy Otto

City Manager, Greeley

Chantal Unfug

Director, Division of Local Government, Department of Local Affairs

Kirby Wynn

Oil & Gas Liaison, Garfield County

PANEL 2: Private Sector Response to Oil and Gas Volatility

11:30 - 12:45pm

How has the private sector responded to challenges resulting from volatile oil prices and production?

Moderator: Kate Gordon, Center on Global Energy Policy

Participants:

Derek Burns

IBEW Local 111

Will Fleckenstein

Board Chair, Credit Union of CO

Ian Lange

Director of the Mineral and Economics Program, CO School of Mines

Deb Ryan

Partner, MHA Petroleum Consultants

NETWORKING LUNCH

12:45pm - 1:45pm

PANEL 3: Policies to Help Producing Communities

1:45 - 3:00pm

What state or federal policies can support producing communities in adjusting to volatility?

Moderator: Morgan Bazilian, Colorado School of Mines / Center on Global Energy Policy

Participants:

Timothy Fitzgerald

Professor of Economics, Texas Tech

Chris Hansen

Colorado Congressman, Transportation and Energy Committee

Mike Leonard

Acting Director, Colorado Oil & Gas Commission

CLOSING SESSION: Reflecting On the Day's Discussion

3:00 - 3:30pm

Moderators: Daniel Raimi, Resources for the Future; Ron Minsk, Center on Global Energy Policy